"This is my wish for you:

COMFORT on difficult days,
SMILES when sadness intrudes,
RAINBOWS to follow the clouds,
LAUGHTER to kiss your lips,
SUNSETS to warm your heart,
HUGS when spirits sag,
BEAUTY for your eyes to see,
FRIENDSHIPS to brighten your being,
FAITH so that you can believe,
CONFIDENCE for when you doubt,
COURAGE to know yourself,
PATIENCE to accept the truth,
LOVE to complete your life."

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Loving God, as the world continues to face the challenge of disease, we give thanks for all who bring healing and health to others; for those who work in hospitals, GP practices, hospices and care homes; for those who volunteer giving time, love and care; for delivery drivers, refuse collectors, supermarket staff; for teachers, social workers and all who care for others. We give thanks for scientists developing treatments and vaccines; for those willing to be used in trials so that others can be well and free; for experts in public health and for all those on the frontline of infection control. In the name of Christ, the healer. Amen.

Michaela Youngson, Assistant Secretary, British Methodist Conference and Connexional Ecumenical Officer
